Description

This small Delft earthenware lamp dates from the 18th century, the rich decoration, in the taste of China, is in blue on a white background. The lacustrian landscape revolves around the with a few characters. Houses, temple temples and pagodas, a man rowing his boat on the water and, more on the water, a man rowing his boat and an island in the distance. The base and neck are adorned with arabesques, stylized flowers and feathers. The small: the vase alone measures 28 cm, the whole with the lampshade measures 52 cm. It has just been electrified. A few small and the neck has been slightly eroded. We present it with a basic lampshade that does not justify the shipping price. shipping costs. Eighteenth-century period.
