Description

The Antique Flower Paintings category presents a charming and small oil on canvas painting, a floral still life dating to the 19th century.

The artwork depicts a delicate still life with peonies, a subject highly appreciated in 19th-century French painting.

This antique painting fully belongs to the naturalist and realist tradition of the 19th century, with a pictorial rendering focused on light, material texture, and the softness of volumes.

In the foreground are white, pink, and red peonies, painted with rich and vibrant brushstrokes, naturally arranged in a blue ceramic vase.

The canvas painting is signed lower right by L. Guerin, a French painter about whom little information is known, active in the late 19th
