Description

Rare and authentic vintage Cuban cigar box from the Bock & Co. factory, Reinas de Bock brand, from Havana. This box is dated 1912 thanks to its original, intact tax stamp from the Republic of Cuba. A remarkable collector's item from the golden age of Cuban cigar manufacturing in the early 20th century, this box testifies to the refinement of Havana cigars produced for a prestigious clientele. The overall condition is remarkable considering its age, with a beautiful, authentic patina. A rare item for collectors. Complete and still-sealed boxes from this period very rarely appear on the market. An exceptionally well-preserved example: - Box never opened,- Still full of its original cigars,- Tax seals present,- Highly decorative antique lithographs and chromolithographs,- Superb natural patina,- No restoration.

The original decoration, typical of early 20th-century Cuban luxury cigars, features the inscriptions "Bock & Co - Reinas de Bock - Habana" as well as period Cuban export markings. Very good overall original condition for a box over 110 years old. Minor wear consistent with age. Box never opened.
