Description

Rare large darbouka Algiers XIXth with rich decoration and gilding 39 cm As is often the case with these painted decorations, note the traces of time, the object remains very presentable a chip at the foot, a small lack in the decoration and a small chip under the neck (perhaps original for the latter) this decoration is rare, comparable to the model in the Musée du Palais Lascaris collection in Nice The Metropolitan Museum or the Cité de la Musique have models from the same period but with less elaborate decoration
