Description

Beautiful console table in mahogany and speckled mahogany veneer with concave sides from the Louis XVI period. The veined white marble top is encircled by an openwork brass gallery. It tops the pedestal opening with a drawer in the front and curved sides framed in mahogany and a brass quarter-round. The slightly swollen uprights are fluted and recessed in the front. They are joined by a crotch shelf and terminate in tapered legs and bronze sabots. Louis XVI period. Beautiful condition, and nice proportion. H: 84 cm, W: 97 cm, D: 56 cm
