Description

The plate shows a scene of musketeers enjoying a feast at an inn. Late 19th century / circa 1890-1905 France, Limoges or Paris. The plate is broken in two and has undergone an old restoration. The reverse bears a label from the firm: "Au Vase Étrusque" 20 boulevard Malesherbes, Paris. This was a luxury business active at the end of the 19th century. Framed in blackened and gilded wood. Bearing a framer's label: E. Dosbourg Jeune 220, faubourg Saint-Honoré, Paris circa 1900. This label confirms an early Parisian framing, however the frame is slightly too large for the plate, so we think it was a late mounting. Signature: Bernard, lower left. Plate dimensions: 502x408x5mm Frame dimensions: 682x585x60mm
