Description

Charming bas-relief depicting the veiled Virgin in an attitude of contemplation and gentleness. The delicately modeled face presents an expression imbued with serenity and spirituality. The silver patina decoration with deep shades, offering beautiful plays of light and a highly decorative presence. (plate not tested possible in silver, silver metal) The set is presented in its antique carved wooden frame with geometric decoration, whose dark patina elegantly highlights the relief of the composition. This religious work has a character that is both intimate and decorative, evoking the Italian piety objects of the first half of the 19th century. Very fine decorative piece for a classic interior, cabinet of curiosities or character residence. Condition conforms to the photographs, with wear and patina of time
