Description

A masterpiece of history and nobility. Owning a piece of ancient art means welcoming a fragment of Milanese history into your home. This extraordinary 19th-century aristocratic terracotta mask, originating from a prestigious noble palace, represents the pinnacle of Lombard architectural decoration. First and foremost, it is essential to note how the terracotta has been shaped with such mastery that it conveys a proud and solemn expression. In fact, the definition of the facial features reveals the skill of artisans who worked for the elite of the time. Superb quality and well-preserved details. Despite the passage of decades, the coat of arms is in excellent overall condition, with only minimal signs of wear that enhance its authentic charm. Moreover, the natural patina gives the piece a unique visual
