Description

Medieval pewter dinette - Fish grill - 15th century, gothic, haute époque, toy Rare and charming little medieval pewter dinette dating from the 15th century, depicting a cooking grill lined with two cooking fish. These miniature objects faithfully reproduced everyday utensils used by adults and were intended for children's play. These miniature objects faithfully reproduced everyday utensils used by adults and were intended for children's play. Very few examples have come down to us in such a fine state of preservation, as these small objects were generally heavily handled and mishandled by children, and often destroyed over time. This piece bears witness to the fact that these miniature objects were designed for children's games. This piece testifies to the skills of
