Description

Gilded wooden Baroque armchair - late 17th century
Dimensions: width 80 cm, depth 70 cm, height 120 cm, seat height 40 cm.
Elegant gilded wooden armchair from the late 17th century, a fine example of Baroque style. The frame is finely carved with rich scrollwork, foliage, and shell motifs, typical of Roman craftsmanship of the period. The high, contoured backrest, along with the curved armrests and wide seat, combines decorative grandeur with comfort. The upholstery is new, respecting the piece's historical character. With a strong visual presence, this armchair was designed as a piece of ceremonial furniture for noble residences and today serves perfectly as a centerpiece in classical interiors or as a contrasting element in more contemporary settings.
