Description

Suite of four Napoleon III chairs in mahogany, featuring superb scroll-carved backrests adorned with a high handle for easy grip, while the curved lines of the finely carved front legs dialogue with the elegance of the saber-shaped back legs to create a harmonious silhouette. The seats have been completely reworked according to the rules of the art - webbing, springs, horsehair and squaring - providing a sound, durable base, ready to receive the final fabric of your choice. The ensemble, dating from the second half of the XIXe century, seduces with its fine workmanship, the quality of its mahogany and the decorative presence of its richly worked backs, making this suite an ideal choice to sublimate a classic, refined or eclectic interior.Era: 2nd half XIXthExcellent condition after Restoration in our
