

Spanish Nasrid-style Dagger - Toledo (spain), 1882

1 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Spanish dagger in the Nasrid style - Toledo (Spain), 1882
The dagger is in the Nasrid style but takes the form of Moroccan koumya. Fine engraved steel handle and scabbard with remains of gilding. Blade engraved and gilded on both sides and featuring "Fabrica de Toledo 1882" marking. For a similar Nasrid-style dagger from Toledo, but in the shape of the the shape of the so-called Babdil swords, see Christie's sale Christie's London, April 7, 2011 sale lot 396 <https://www.christies.com/en/lot/lot-5422211>
Length 43,5cm Length without scabbard 41.5cm Blade length 28cm Weight 576gr Weight without scabbard 466gr

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120