Description

Pair of Empire-Restauration period armchairs in mahogany, resting on sheathed front legs and sabre back legs. The carved scrolled armrests bring great elegance and character to the ensemble. The straight backs and generous seats are upholstered in mustard yellow velvet, highlighted with a tapestry nail finish. Very beautiful patina of the wood and sober lines typical of furniture from the Empire-Restauration period. Nice 19th-century French workmanship, ideal as occasional, lounge or office seating. Dimensions: Height: 91 cm Width: 60 cm Depth: 62 cm Good overall condition with slight traces of use consistent with age. Upholstery and fabric in nice used condition.
