Description

Louis XVI-style flat desk in mahogany, resting on four tapered legs finished with brass sabots. The top is sheathed in fawn leather gilded with small irons, showing a beautiful patina of use that reinforces all the charm of the piece. The belt opens with two drawers at the front and features retractable side pulls, practical for enlarging the work surface. Discreet ornamentation of gilded bronzes at the corners and keyways, typical of Louis XVI-inspired furniture. Sober, elegant lines, perfect both as a desk and a refined side table. Dimensions: Width: 120 cm + 70cm Height: 75 cm prof: 78 cm Good overall condition with traces of time and normal leather wear, consistent with age and contributing to its authenticity.
