Description

Pair of Art Nouveau-period covered vases, in porcelain decorated with enameled floral motifs in brown and cream tones, resting on a finely worked gilded bronze mounting. Each vase features an elegant baluster form embellished with foliate side grips and a lid surmounted by an openwork bronze fretel. The stylized floral decoration is in the creations of the 1900 period in the spirit of French Art Nouveau. Very fine decorative presence for a console, mantelpiece or bookcase. Dimensions: Height: 45 cm Width: 15 cm Good overall condition with light patina of the bronze and traces of time consistent with age.
