Description

A set of pendant furniture from the Charles X period in maple, comprising a doucine chest of drawers and a flap-top secretary, topped with Saint Cyr marble tops. This set features beautiful woodwork in symmetrical patterns, highlighting warm nuances. The bronze handles and lock escutcheons add a refined finish: swans with spread wings. The secretary opens onto an interior fitted with small drawers and storage compartments, with a writing tablet sheathed in antique leather with a patina of age. The chest offers three large, spacious and functional drawers plus a doucine. Dimensions chest: Width: 120 cm Height: 90 cm prof: 48 cm Dimensions secretary: Width: 90 cm Height: 145 cm prof: 42 cm Good overall condition with traces of use and light patina of time, consistent with age.
