Description

Oil on panel signed André Advier depicting a young woman elegantly dressed in a pink dress, seated in a country landscape bathed in light. The artist delivers here a composition full of softness and freshness, treated in a free and luminous touch reminiscent of the Impressionist spirit. The pastel colors, the material effects and the delicate expression of the model lend the whole a great deal of poetry and elegance. The work is presented in an important Baroque-style carved and gilded wooden frame, particularly highlighting the delicacy of the subject. Signature lower right: André Advier. Technique: oil on panel. Overall good condition, with light patina of the frame and minor wear consistent with age. Very decorative, ideal in a classical, romantic or eclectic interior. 34 x 25 cm
