Description

Giovanni Battista Carpanetto, "Portrait of a Woman," pastel, signed, 19th century
Giovanni Battista Carpanetto - Portrait of a Woman
Pastel on cardboard
Late 19th century (50 × 50 cm; framed 56 × 56 cm)
A refined female portrait executed in pastel on cardboard by Giovanni Battista Carpanetto, signed lower left. The work, dating to the late 19th century, interprets the theme of the female figure with intimate sensitivity and academic taste, conveying an image of intense emotional delicacy. The young woman is depicted in a half-length portrait, with her face turned upward in a contemplative and absorbed pose. Her gaze, illuminated by a soft and vibrant light, lends the composition an almost spiritual quality, while the soft modeling of the flesh tones reveals a remarkable mastery of the
