

Mexican Marine Officer's Sabre Based On The Spanish Model, First Half Of The 20th Century

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

MEXICAN MARINE OFFICER'S SABRE based on the Spanish model, First half of the 20th century. 32682 Gilt bronze frame. Guard with one branch forming a full shell decorated with an oval medallion with the arms of Mexico. Long-tailed cap in the shape of a cracara head (emblematic bird of Mexico). Folding counter-keyboard. Wooden handle sheathed in black shagreen with copper filigree. Ferrule engraved with a branch of foliage. Slightly curved nickel-plated blade with gutters, length 72.9 cm, acid-etched on both sides: "ARMADA / MEXICANA" framed by military sailing ships and naval trophies on one side, and the Mexican coat of arms with a sailing ship and vegetal decoration on the other. It is signed on the heel with the maker's logo "COBE". Black patent leather scabbard with three gilded

Dealer

Bertrand Malvaux

Expert agréé par la CNES Chambre Nationale des Experts
Spécialisés

Tel : 02 40 73 36 00

Mobile : 06 07 75 74 63

22 rue Crébillon

Nantes 44000

brass fittings engraved with geometric designs.
Brass cap with piron and ring, engraved with a navy anchor. Central trim engraved with the initials "R M". Gilt bronze studs and rings.
Scabbard tip finished with a lyre-shaped cut-out stinger. Mexico. First half of the 20th century. Good condition, gilding missing, some slight oxidation to the blade. NOTE: This saber was produced by a Mexican manufacturer claiming autonomy of production with the mark affixed to the heel of the blade "FORJAMOS NUESTRO DESTINO", made by the COBE furrier.