

Large Rouen Earthenware Dish XVIIIe - Floral Basket Décor, Large Blue And Red Flames

350 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 43 cm

Width : 31,5 cm

Description

Large Rouen earthenware dish XVIIIe - floral basket décor, large blue and red fireImportant Rouen earthenware dish, dating from the XVIIIe century. This large model features a grand feu decoration in blue and red, organized around an elegant floral basket at its center. The contoured wing is underlined by a broad blue fillet, framed on either side by a frieze of geometric motifs, giving the ensemble a remarkable decorative balance. This large model features a grand feu décor in blue and red, organized around an elegant floral basket in the center. Rouen earthenware, whose origins date back to the XVIIe century with major figures such as Poterat, quickly established itself as one of the most emblematic productions in France. The early decorations, influenced by Italian models and

Dealer

Antiquités Dubouchage

Generalist

Tel : 0614100067

Mobile : 0612094302

1 rue Rancher

Nice 06000

themselves inspired by the Far East, gradually evolved into richer, more covering compositions, characteristic of the Rouen style. In the XVIIIe century, this production boomed, driven by strong demand and recognized quality of execution. The decorations, both structured and ornamental, reflect the refined art of living of the period. This dish is a perfect example of this. This dish perfectly illustrates this tradition, combining decorative richness and harmony of form. It is part of a mastered production logic, while at the same time being able to be considered a study piece in the evolution of Rouen decorations, and a true showcase object, particularly decorative. This dish perfectly illustrates this tradition, combining decorative richness and harmony of form. Very good condition. Dimensions: Length : 43 cm Width: 31.5 cm A piece of fine presence, emblematic of the craftsmanship of Rouen's 18th century workshops.