Description

Pair of subjects in green patinated bronze representing two hunting dogs on terraces, one sniffing the air, the other the ground. On oval bases in sea-green marble, molded and bronze counter base. Late 19th century - early 20th century. Small wear patina on one, old restoration with small chip on the marble base of the other bronze figure. The Beagle Harrier is a pack dog that puts its excellent sense of smell to good use in hunting, that is what our sculptor sought to represent. Height : 11.5 cm - Length : 13.4 cm
