Description

Old oil on canvas dating from the early 19th century. Beautiful portrait of a young boy holding a flower basket. The child is dressed in an elegant Empire-period costume consisting of a red jacket and a wide, finely embroidered white collar. The composition inscribed in an oval medallion on a dark background still recalls the sensibility of the late 18th century, in a spirit of transition between the Louis XVI, Directoire and Empire periods. The portrait is presented in a carved and gilded wooden frame with floral and rocailles decoration. Dimensions: Frame: 66 cm x 53 cm Frame: 61 cm x 54.5 cm Set in good presentation condition with wear, old restorations and small visible accidents .
