curator of the Musée Granet, and sculpture with Henri Pontier. Around 1910, he relinquished his position to devote himself to art. He exhibited at the Salon des artistes français from 1923 to 1939 and in the provinces, decorating the Villa Corsica in Aix with paintings and sculptures. Settled in Aix, he painted the town and its surroundings, rubbing shoulders with local painters such as Louis Gautier, Edouard Ducros, Joseph Hurard and Achille Empeire. His works are today notably conserved in various museums such as the Musée Granet in Aix en Provence, Le Musée des beaux-arts de la ville de Cannes and Carpentras. Dimensions : 24 x 33 cm unframed and 34 x 43 cm with its modern gilded wood frame. For more information, please contact us.
