Description

An elegant mid-20th-century French sideboard in cherry wood, characterized by sinuous lines and refined Provençal-style detailing. It features a curved front with four doors and two central under-shelf drawers, embellished with handles and grilles in chiseled bronze. The doors are decorated with molded frames and delicate floral and scroll carvings, while the lower panel features rich sculpted detailing with a central shell motif. The piece rests on elegant, curved legs that lend a slender silhouette to the structure, creating a sense of great harmony. Inside, it offers ample storage space thanks to its internal shelves, making it ideal for both classic and elegant rustic settings. Origin: France Period: early 1900s Style: Provençal Dimensions: 248x58x106h cm
