Description

Beautiful Dior Travel Bag Boston 65cm model in its iconic Trotter pattern. Model from the 1980s Navy-colored leather parts. The bag is in very good overall condition, some interior stains and wear to the corners. The Trotter pattern, sometimes called Dior Oblique, appeared in the late 1960s under the direction of Marc Bohan, then Dior's artistic director. Inspired by the traditional monograms of luxury leather goods, this pattern repeats the "Dior" logo in an elegant, structured jacquard fabric. A certificate of authenticity protecting the item can be issued on request. Do not hesitate to contact us in writing or by telephone. Sale subject to Terms and Conditions of Sale
