Description

A superb rectangular box by the celebrated lunelloise ceramist Mithé Espelt (1923-2020). An exceptional mastery of two colors in blue and gold (often concealed under the glaze), here in the service of a geometric relief decoration. This is in very good condition, with bright colors and a glossy glaze. In stamped and glazed earthenware, cracked gold. The black-painted oak base, emerald-green felts are original and are original and the artist's own, present under the base inside the box and at the base of the lid itself. An increasingly sought-after collector's piece. Typical of Mithé Espelt's work, this box bears no signature (as was the rule for the artist, who wished to keep his accessible), but its style is immediately recognizable. In very good used and original condition. H: 8cm - W: 15cm - D: 10cm.
