Description

Tool / Folk Art
Nice example of a iron workshop vice, stamped with initials "I W HB "of its 1st owner
Germany ? 17th or early 18th c
2 powerful perpendicular jaws both stabilize the tool on a workbench and hold the workpiece.
All the rivets, clamping screws and crank handle are original, with a very fine patina from daily use over centuries. Particularly noteworthy are the traces of metal hammering, surviving signs of the tool's original creation stage
Dimensions 42,5 / 29,5 cm length* 26 / 18 cm high*and 6 cm depth
Very good condition.
