Description

a serie of six humorous gouaches painting depicting the stages of a misunderstanding betwween a soldier of the second empire and a clerjyman. The highley caricatured characters are very much in keeping with the style of the humoristing of the period.The lines are very lively, everything is in motion, and the exagerated expressions give the whole a jovial and patriotic tone to the whole. They are painted on a bistre backgroundin red and black, they are in good condition despite some trace of damp.They are very well framed.
