Description

An elegant pair of walnut nightstands dating from the late 19th to early 20th century, characterized by clean lines and balanced proportions. Each piece features an upper drawer and a paneled front door, offering practicality and storage capacity combined with a refined and timeless aesthetic.The warm hue of the walnut and the natural grain of the wood highlight the craftsmanship of the piece, while the slender structure with slightly tapered legs lends lightness and elegance to the overall design.Perfect as bedside tables, but also as small side tables in classic or contemporary settings with a refined taste.
