Description

Elegant 19th century porcelain desk inkwell in the Sèvres taste, resting on four feet decorated with lion paws. Rich polychrome and gilded decoration composed of scrolls, ornamental motifs and bird-decorated reserves. The set features three porcelain-covered compartments, including an openwork lid, characteristic of writing sets from the Napoleon III period. Important gilding work and refined Louis XVI-inspired decoration. French work, circa 1850-1880.
