Description

Important Napoleon III period table lamp in the neo-Egyptian taste, consisting of a polychrome enameled earthenware body with rich decoration inspired by ancient Egypt. The main decoration depicts a pharaoh's profile surrounded by Egyptian motifs: sphinxes, lotus flowers, scarabs and winged symbols in a vivid palette of blue, red, green and gold. The black patinated bronze frame features striking applique Pharaoh heads, openwork arms and an elegant tripod base with geometric Orientalist-inspired decoration. The ensemble is topped by an etched frosted glass globe with floral decoration diffusing a soft, warm light. Antique oil lamp converted to electricity. French work from the second half of the 19th century, typical of the Egyptomaniac taste developed after archaeological discoveries
