Description

Pair of 1920's solid oak bookcases Two solid oak bookcases with a sober, balanced line, typical of the 1920's. The front features a discreet cornice, slightly softened uprights and a nice depth of cabinet. Each unit offers several levels of open storage, practical for books, objects or crockery. The brown patina highlights the oak grain and gives a warm, authentic finish. Discover all our other products on our website: www.lantiquites.com
