Description

Entrance console or small sideboard with a modernist design from the 70s, elegantly blending dark-stained rosewood veneer, smoked glass and brushed metal central structure. A graphic and architectural piece, with a style very close to the Italian and French creations of the Space Age / late modernism period. The top features two lateral spaces framed by a discreet gallery, as well as an elegant central compartment in curved smoked glass bringing lightness and sophistication to the ensemble. The central pedestal composed of 3 aluminum metal drawers contrasts perfectly with the warmth of the wood. A rare and decorative piece, ideal as an entrance console, occasional piece of furniture, end of sofa or small side desk in a contemporary, vintage chic or collector's interior. Features: Era:
