Description

Beautiful provincial mahogany chest of drawers opening with three drawers in the front, Directoire dating from the XIXe century. The front is adorned with an elegant geometric decoration with reserves and fluting, highlighted by brass drawer rings. It stands on four tapered fluted legs in the late Louis XVI and Directoire taste. The piece features fine quality antique workmanship with traditional assemblies, square pegs and white wood backs, testifying to early provincial workmanship. Its sober, architectural design evokes certain provincial work from the early XIXe century. It is topped with an elegant Turquin blue marble top bringing much character and elegance to the ensemble. Beautiful antique patina. Good overall condition with traces of time and old crack visible on one side, visible on
