

Ww1 Canadian Rfc Cuff Rank Tunic

1 440 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

First World War officers cuff rank tunic of the Canadian Royal Flying Corps. The cuff rank insignia showing the rank of Lieutenant and has bullion embroidered "CANADA" shoulder titles to the base of the shoulder straps. A full compliment of "RFC" brass buttons with small bronze collar dogs to the lapels. To the left of the breast is the Royal Flying Corps pilots qualification wings. Interior is lined with brown silk and to the interior pocket is a tailors fit-reform label which shows the owners name "Walker" and the date the jacket was altered "April 22 1918". A nice tunic that is in overall, excellent condition.

Dealer

Waterloo Militaria

Militaria

Mobile : 07856642986

Church

Stapleford Abbots RM41ES