Description

Large Napoleon III period Aubusson rug - late 19th century. In shades of green, beige, pink and golden yellow, our rug has a beautiful Empire-Restauration décor with a floral frame, with a central rosette surrounded by interlacing and palmettes. Manufacture d'Aubusson has been renowned for the excellence of it since the 17th century, for French carpets and tapestries. First Royal, Imperial and then National, it was supplier to official palaces and aristocratic families. Beautiful and rare item. It is an indispensable essential for a great French decoration. The effect produced by XVIIIth century seats and furniture on a French carpet has nothing to do with an Oriental carpet. Our rug is in very good overall
