330 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on copper

Description

Antique painting on copper depicting the Virgin Mary, Italian school, late 17th-early 18th century--minor loss of paint--dimensions: 12.5 cm x 9.5 cm; frame: 17 x 14 cm--The painting is a devotional work, an oil on copper depicting Our Lady of Sorrows. These small paintings on copper were popular for private devotion. The image shows the Virgin with her hands clasped at her chest and her gaze lowered, a common iconography for Our Lady of Sorrows. The copper surface was often favored for small devotional formats, providing a smooth and durable support for oil pigments.
