Description

Very large Siassi "food bowl" in hard wood with a beautiful patina of use . This prestigious object has two functions: a customary function consisting of using it as a dish during ceremonial rites, but also a function as an object of exchange between the tribes of the Tami and Siassi islands and the tribes of other islands or the coasts of the mainland. Engraved tribal drawings evoking ancestors and totemic animals (fish, birds). An exceptional piece for its size and the quality of the carvings. An old crack visible on the pictures. Very fine piece of Oceanic tribal art. Base on request only. Approx. 111 x 53 x 27 cm / 2500EUR shipping included for Europe.
