Description

Louis Philippe period glazed bookcase in walnut. This piece of furniture features a beautiful warm patina as well as a particularly decorative veining, highlighting the quality of the wood. Its straight, balanced lines make it equally at home in both classic and contemporary interiors. The interiors are neat and glazed. The cornice is in the form of a doucine, typical of Louis Philippe furniture. The upper part opens through a large glass door offering great storage and display capacity for books, collectibles, glassware or curiosities. The interior is fitted with several shelves. A discreet drawer in the lower section completes the ensemble. We particularly appreciate: the quality of the cabinetwork, the sober, refined moldings, the beautiful depth of the wood, its modest size easy to integrate. Ideal piece of
