

Miniature: Napoleonic Memories

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Water color

Description

Important 19th century rectangular miniature painted in watercolor and gouache in various shades and pastels depicting a Napoleonic scene. A family is sitting in front of its house; the mother is seated and breastfeeding her baby while her husband, also seated, is leaning on a small table, eyes closed, legs stretched out and hand on his heart. The father, a former soldier in Napoleon's army, recounts his experiences under Napoleon's orders. The whole family is captivated by the story, even the dog sitting on the left! The narrator seems to be reliving the unforgettable moments he experienced and conveying his emotions. The painter has captured the atmosphere that reigned in this courtyard; everyone's attitudes are very evocative. In the background, we recognize Napoleon on

Dealer

Muriel Chouffot

Tableaux, objets de vitrine

Tel : 06 10 19 54 15

114, route du cognac

Gensac-la-Pallue 16130

horseback, arm outstretched to indicate the direction to take, followed by his army. Framed in bronze and burr wood, probably walnut. Presence of a suspension ring. With frame, : 13, 5 X 27 5cm Miniature alone: 8 5 X 23cm This interesting miniature is in very good condition.