Description

Antique crystal glassware set for 12 people, deep-faceted cut crystal, Cristallerie de Lemberg. The set consists of a decanter, twelve water glasses and twelve wine glasses. The deep, regular cutting is characteristic of the work of this renowned glassworks from Lorraine.

Historical note: Cristallerie de Lemberg, founded in the 19th century in the Vosges region, became known for the quality of its hand-cut crystal. It is celebrated for its sharp, deep geometric patterns. Condition: very good overall condition. A small chip on the rim of one wine glass should be noted. All other pieces are intact.
