Description

Watch in 750/°° yellow gold (18 KT, Saint Bernard head hallmark) signed Frédérique Constant, produced as part of a commemorative series to mark the end of a Safran Group employee's career. This timepiece is distinguished by its classic, timeless elegance, characteristic of the Geneva-based house. The finely crafted dial features a guilloché decoration in the center, framed by a chemin de fer and Roman numerals, giving the whole a refined, balanced reading. Breguet-style hands in blued steel and the small seconds at 6 o'clock reinforce its traditional, classic watchmaking-inspired aesthetic. The yellow gold case, with its sober, perfectly proportioned lines, brings a warm presence to the wrist. The gadroons on the case add refinement to the watch, and its slender lugs give it a particularly streamlined volume. The watch has retained its original, hallmarked pin buckle, as well as the brand's signature black crocodile leather strap. The caseback is engraved "Safran", accompanied by the words "1979 - 2009" and an individual number, attesting to its commemorative and personal character. The watch is powered by a Frédérique Constant Swiss quartz movement (caliber FC-235), renowned for its precision and reliability, guaranteeing stress-free everyday use. A watch that is both precious and charged with meaning, it will appeal equally to lovers of classic watchmaking and collectors sensitive to pieces with history. Its format and style make it a perfect combination. In perfect condition and serviced, we guarantee its good working order for one year (except in the event of shock or immersion).
