Description

Elegant Asian lacquer coffee table, dating from the late 19th century, featuring rich inlaid decoration in relief. The circular top is adorned with finely executed figurative scenes, depicting figures, birds and landscape elements in a lively composition. The decoration is inlaid with mother-of-pearl and natural materials, offering a beautiful effect of contrast and depth. The whole is underlined by decorative friezes with traditional motifs. The belt, with its flowing shape, rests on four richly decorated curved feet, in the Far Eastern taste. Beautiful decorative object, characteristic of late 19th-century Asian export production. Good overall condition, with slight traces of use consistent with age. Dimensions: Height: 87 cm Diameter: 34 cm
