

Japanese Scenes Of Life

220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on cardboard

Length : 35 cm

Width : 28 cm

Description

Two matching scenes of Japanese life. On the left, a woman swings her daughter in a garden. On the right, a boy stretches his arms towards his father. These two oil paintings are painted on boiled cardboard, which was much done under Napoléon III. They are polychrome with additions of gold powder paint. A vertical signature, lower right, can be deciphered... Dimensions with frame: 35 x 28 View of each oil: 7.5 x 11.5

Dealer

Sabine Tissot

18th, 19th and 20th century paintings, drawings, furniture, decorative art

Mobile : 0613427030

1 Bis avenue de Breteuil

Paris 75007