

Coral Choker And Cross, Late 19th Century, French Workmanship

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 40 cm

Description

Coral necklace and cross, late 19th c., French work. Choker made of natural and faceted coral beads, on a knotted fillet, centered by a coral and yellow gold cross. The clasp is in 18-carat yellow gold (750 millièmes), as are the setting and the ring of the cross. Gross weight: 12.28 g Length: 40 cm Jewel typical of the Mediterranean Basin (Provence and Southern Alps), Mediterranean coral with this dark red color. Good condition, traces of soldering on the cross, beautiful quality of antique coral, perfectly natural. The necklace has been rethreaded. Declared-value delivery with insurance and signature in France, accompanied by invoice by e-mail.

Dealer

Gemma

Bijoux Anciens pour la Vie d'Aujourd'hui

Tel : 06 75 24 01 46

Mobile : Insta #victoirevalleedeletraz

Lyon 69003