Description

Superb kilim made by the Gashgai tribes, entirely hand-woven according to the nomadic traditions of southern Iran. This antique rug seduces with its typical geometric motifs and luminous palette of yellow, powder pink, orange, blue and ivory tones, bringing warmth and authenticity to any interior. Made from wool on wool, it is reversible thanks to its flat-weave technique, offering excellent resistance and great flexibility of use. Gashgai kilims are renowned for the quality of their craftsmanship and their designs inspired by Persian tribal culture.
