Description

IMPORTANT PRICE REDUCTION WITH RETIREMENT Wrought-iron console from the 1950's, central foot, half-moon shape (not overpowering), intense black marble, no veining (note a tiny chip in the bottom right-hand corner). The console is painted, but needs to be revised, either repainted or sandblasted to bring it back to metal, more in tune with the times ... it would be superb! golden balls between parts of wrought iron.
