

Pair Of Carved And Gilded Wooden Guéridons

11 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Description

A refined pair of guéridons of Roman provenance, made in the early 18th century, entirely of finely carved and richly gilded wood. The elegant pieces feature a dramatic design in the grand Baroque style, characterized by exceptional decorative elements carved in the round. The circular tops, embellished with foliage motifs and relief carvings, rest on central supports consisting of intertwined plant elements and figures of cherubs carved with extraordinary plastic softness. The base is enlivened by spectacular fantastical figures of mythological inspiration, rendered with vigorous craftsmanship and remarkable attention to anatomical detail. The ensemble fully expresses the magnificence of early 18th-century Roman furnishings, where decorative function is combined with the mastery
