Description

A pair of pastel portraits of Daniel Edler von Czerva (from the plate on the frame) and his wife were produced in the last quarter of the 18th century and, due to their very similar style, have been attributed to Romanian portraitist Anselm Wagner (1766 Timisoara - 1806). For comparison, see several pastel portraits by Wagner by following this link:<https://www.pastellists.com/Articles/WAGNERa.pdf> Anselm Wagner (1766 Timisoara (Temeswar), Romania - 1806) was the son of Viennese painter Michael Wagner (1731-1783), who had settled in Transylvania (Romania). Anselm studied at the Vienna Academy with Danish artist Johann Jakob Stunder. He was also influenced by the Baroque style of Meytens, turning (around 1796) to the
