Description

A candy dish made of blown and finely cut crystal, accompanied by a silver-plated metal saucer with wavy edges. The set features the beautiful transparency of fine crystal, which creates an elegant contrast with the silver-plated metal base. The rim of the crystal bowl, as well as that of the lid, is slightly sharp, as it was not ground after production: a characteristic typical of antique manufacturing techniques. Apart from this original feature, the set is in excellent condition, with no cracks or chips.
